FOODSERVICE

HAND-CRAFTED IN DETROIT

Rooted in Detroit's historic Eastern Market and a proud meatpacking legacy, Wolverine Packing Co. has grown over three generations of family ownership into a comprehensive protein provider. From its beginnings as a small lamb and veal packer, the company now offers a wide range of quality meats and frozen seafood, including ground beef, portion-cut meats, value-added products, and —true to its roots— fresh lamb and veal. Wolverine's mission is clear: to deliver exceptional products and unmatched service. Its continued success is built on long-standing customer relationships, a dedicated team, and a foundation of integrity, conservative business practices, and a steadfast commitment to putting customers first.

ABOUT WOLVERINE

ITEM LIST

GROUND BEEF & PREMIUM PATTIES

Wolverine Packing Co. delivers burgers designed with the operator in mind—culinary-driven, safety-focused, and built for performance. With an industry-leading 24-day shelf life and zero steak trimmings, their burgers offer unmatched consistency, texture, and flavor. Crafted using a proprietary grinding process and chopped—not emulsified—for a hand-made appearance, Wolverine burgers resist cupping, pocketing, and shrinkage. Each package features their EZ Peel packaging with a clear use-by stamp, packed in full boxes to prevent shifting or damage. Backed by GFSI-certified facilities and rigorous pre and post-grind X-ray and fat analysis, Wolverine sets the standard in food safety and quality. Available in patties, pucks, and bulk, they offer flexible production with full traceability to meet the needs of any kitchen.

ADDITIONAL OFFERINGS

In addition to their premium ground beef patties, Wolverine Packing Co. offers an impressive array of additional protein options to suit a wide range of tastes and culinary needs. Their steak selection features flavorful cuts like ribeye, strip steak, T-bone, and tender medallions—perfect for grilling or gourmet preparation. Customers can also explore lean and hearty alternatives such as bison, lamb racks, and veal leg cutlets. For poultry lovers, Wolverine provides a full lineup of chicken options including ground white meat, tenders, boneless skinless thighs, wings, and whole chickens, along with tender turkey breasts for lighter fare. Rounding out the assortment is premium pork tenderloin, offering both versatility and rich flavor. Whether you're planning a classic cookout or crafting a high-end menu, Wolverine's diverse protein offerings deliver quality, variety, and taste you can count on.
